

Natassa Koutsouni | BSc, MMedSci

Senior Clinical Embryologist

cv

Natassa Koutsouni received her Bachelor of Science degree in Biological Applications and Technologies from University of Ioannina, Greece in 2008

She completed a Masters in Medical Science in Assisted Reproduction Technologies from the University of Nottingham, UK after earning a scholarship from Onassis Foundation.

She worked in several IVF clinics in Athens for more than 10 years where she was trained in all IVF techniques and gained much experience. She is an active member of the European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology and Panhellenic Union of Clinical Embryologists (P.E.K.E.).

She is a member of the Assisting Nature IVF unit for the last 2 years and she is currently working in Assisting Nature Iaso Thessaly Larissa as a Senior Clinical Embryologist.

Κουτσούνη Αναστασία

Senior Clinical Embryologist

Assisting Nature Iaso Thessaly Larissa